Dear Jack,

I'm certainly sorry that we waited so long to write and tell you how much I enjoy the monthly Bulletin.

I've missed several copies. However for the past couple of months we've been on the go. Now that some of our mail has caught up with our outfit I can start looking forward to the Swiss Bulletin again.

This island is just a little different from all the rest out here. The difference is that it is a coconut plantation. Out side of that it has its jungles, mountains & insects. Of course the rains keep it rather cool at night.

Up until now I haven't met any of the boys from home. Although we passed lots of planes that some are located. I passed by [redacted] awhile back. Too bad I didn't stay long for some of the fellows from home are still there. Maybe later on I'll find some tho. Well it's time for Chow so I'd better sign off.

Sincerely,
Wally Davis
