Dear Jack:

Thanks for your Christmas note, which just reached me.

I managed to get home for Christmas by "squeezing" leave and traveling fast but stayed close to the farm. Duties here, though interesting, do not involve the hardships many of the boys have to undergo nor compare with some experiences I have had, yet it was a pleasure to hear from you so nicely. I receive the church bulletin and read it regularly.

With best wishes, as ever,

Sincerely yours,

Thomas J. Ellis
