Dear Sir,

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you and your church for the bulletin which is being sent me. Since last seeing you at the Country Club this news paper - and it is really that - has come to mean more even than it did while in the States. I particularly enjoyed your round-up column of the class of '33. Many of my friends were located for me. May I ask that the same be done for the class of '34? Another interesting section is the message at the end by various men. I saw an interesting thing tonight that might interest you. We were sitting in our club room (as we call it) reading, writing, etc. when someone accidentally tuned in on an Episcopal service being broadcast from London. Gradually the pens were down and the books closed. There were about fifteen of us. Even after the closing hymn our digestion took place in silence. Even though we become hardened as ^{we} look down from ^{where} we are, we haven't forgotten and I assure you we won't. Again, thanks for the bulletin.

Best wishes
Herchel Graves
