Dear Pastor, 11/2/44

Received your note + the Oct. 23, Bulletin last night + indeed glad to hear from you again + to receive the bulletin. At this writing I am well + feeling very good, just hope + pray to stay that way until its all over, over here. Have been in France quite some time, landed in Southern France D day, this was my second invasion the other was at Anzio, Beachhead, Italy. The people of France are swell + treat the Americans just fine; much finer in every respect than the Italians. Will have to close for this time thanks again for the Bulletin + good luck to you + yours. Keep up the good work. Remember me to all. As ever, Roger

all right
